Cultural Competence, Immigration and Family Law Training FREE!!!

Indianapolis, IN – The Latino Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence will present free Cultural Competence, Immigration and Family Law Trainings. These are half-day events as part of our ENLACE Program: Encouraging Non-violence through Legal Assistance and Community Education, dedicated to educating service providers, community leaders, and Latino community members about these pertinent issues. The following trainings are among those in the ENLACE series that have already been held in Marion and Allen counties. All of the trainings feature several legal experts from across Indiana who are also highly experienced in working with Latino victims of violence.

The trainings will take place on:
